

OFFICE ON MARKET STREET

NUMBER 40

Robert Hall, the celebrated Baptist preacher, did not lose his powers of reason in madness. A hypocritical dealer with his misfortune, once visited in the mad house and said in a whinny tone: "What brought you here, Mr. H?" Hall significantly touched his brow with his finger and replied: "What will bring you here, sir, for such a time?"